

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

THE CENTER FOR FAMILY SUPPORT

MARCH'S WINNER IS TOM ORESIA

Nominated by Day Program Manager John Gichuri

Tom Oresia is a self-driven, very dedicated and results oriented staff member with a great passion for working with all the individuals we serve at the Union Autism Day Program. Tom is always willing and ready to take on additional responsibilities cheerfully at the program based on staffing and on a few occasions was left in charge of running the Program when both the Supervisor and Assistant had to attend urgent important meetings.

Tom's charisma, professionalism and effective communication skills naturally creates a very conducive work environment between Management, Parents / Guardians, Instructors and various Direct Support Professional staff in the different group homes that we serve at the Program.

Tom's commitment to his work is not limited to his shift hours and the prevailing weather conditions. This is vividly evidenced by the fact that Tom worked in every snow storm we had at our Group homes and For this few positive attributes naming Tom Oresia the

Tom Oresia
Union Day Program

hasn't shown signs of slowing down. among many more, I am honored in employee of the month.
